HAPPY BIRTHDAY BRETHREN

Could it be Freemasonry?

Researchers are mostly in agreement about what motivates people to be happy: Money isn't the key to happiness.

What really gives people meaning and happiness is a combination of four things:

- control over what they're doing;
- progress in what they're pursuing;
- being connected with others, and
- being part of something they enjoy that's bigger than themselves.
